DAY 1 – THURSDAY, MARCH 25 – We begin our Cherry Blossom Time in Washington as we meet together this morning at the Jackson Medgar Evers Airport for a mid morning departure to Washington, DC. We will arrive at BWI Airport mid afternoon and will be picked up by our private motorcoach. After collecting our luggage, we will depart the airport and make the short drive to our Nation's Capitol, Washington, DC – a grand and stately city of imposing national shrines and monuments that testify to some of America's greatest names. We will enjoy an "orientation drive" around the city, as we see the many monuments and memorials. We will transfer to the Pentagon City Fashion Centre Food Court, to enjoy dinner on our own. We will meet our licensed DC Tour Guide after our meal and begin our tour with an Illumination Tour of the Big Three Memorials – the Abraham Lincoln Memorial, the Vietnam Veterans Memorial, and the Korean War Memorial. Each of these monuments are more beautiful at night. Following our illumination tour, we will transfer to our hotel, for group check in This will be a great beginning to our trip! After getting settled in, we will enjoy our hotel for a restful evening.

DAY 2 – FRIDAY, MARCH 26 – We will enjoy a deluxe hot breakfast included at our hotel. We have an exciting day planned, as we have our licensed DC guide with us throughout the day for our guided tour! We will start with a special visit to our Nation's most sacred shrine – Arlington National Cemetery, to see the Changing of the Guard Ceremony at the Tomb of the Unknown

Soldiers. We will also be able to see Audie Murphy and Medgar Evers's graves. Following Arlington, we will transfer to the U.S. Capitol Welcome Center, where we will break for lunch, on our own, at the Capitol Visitor's Center Food Court. Following lunch, we will meet one of the "Red Coat" Capitol Tour Guides to experience a guided tour of the Capitol and Statuary Hall. Next, we will journey to the 1860's as we have a guided tour of Ford's Theatre, where President Abraham Lincoln was assassinated by John Wilkes Booth. There is an impressive museum at Ford's that will take us through the Civil War, slavery, and Reconstruction. Following our time at Ford's Theatre, we will transfer to Old Town Alexandria, Virginia, where we will be welcomed by a costumed guide, and learn a little about the history here. We will see where George Washington worshipped and where his Inaugural Ball was held. We will end our day with everyone enjoying dinner at your choice of great restaurants along King Street, on your own this evening. There are so many great restaurants and neat shops to explore! We will return to our hotel following our time in Old Town this evening. (B)

DAY 3 – SATURDAY, MARCH 27 – Our group will enjoy breakfast included at our hotel this morning. At 9:00AM we will board our motorcoach and transfer to the best area in all of Washington, DC to see the Cherry Blossoms, the tidal basin – where the Potomac River basin surrounds the Thomas Jefferson, Franklin Roosevelt and Martin Luther King, Jr.'s Memorials. Our group will meet our step on guide to enjoy "taking it all in" on the highlight of our tour today! There will be plenty of time to walk, take pictures and enjoy one of the most beautiful sights in our nation today. For a special treat, we will enjoy a catered sandwich lunch from our friends at Firehouse Subs, to eat outside overlooking the Cherry Blossoms! After we have enjoyed plenty of time at the Tidal Basin, we will then enjoy a guided tour of each of these three Memorials together. This afternoon, we will make a stop at the White House for a group photo and a walking tour outside of the north face, where we will also see Vice President's Office building as well as the Blair House, the official guest house of the President. Following our tour there, we will transfer to Carmine's Italian Restaurant for dinner this evening, included in our tour. After our meal, we will continue our sightseeing as we will enjoy the beauty of the Dwight D. Eisenhower Memorial and the World War I Memorial. This will be a special ending to our day today. We return to our hotel after our tour. (B,L,D)

DAY 4 – SUNDAY, MARCH 28 – Our group will enjoy breakfast included at our hotel this morning. Today, we will make the short transfer to Mt. Vernon, the historic home of George and Martha Washington. We will have a tour of the mansion and enjoy the many artifacts at the Reynolds Museum. We will have lunch on our own at the food court located there. Following Mt. Vernon, we will transfer to the National World War II Memorial, where we may be fortunate enough to shake hands or share a hug with a World War II Veteran. As a special treat, we will have a wreath laying ceremony to honor our Greatest Generation and all our Mississippi War Veterans. This afternoon, we will see the pages of the Old and New Testament come to life, as we tour the amazing Museum of the Bible together! See amazing artifacts, recreations of Biblical life, and theatres using the latest immersive technology that will educate and inspire all of us – this is four floors of Bible history to explore at our own pace today. After our time at the Bible Museum, we will transfer to our hotel to relax and enjoy a delicious Barbeque dinner, fully catered by Rocklands BBQ! Enjoy smoked Ribs, Chicken, and your favorite sides, plus dessert and iced tea, all included in our tour this evening. After dinner, enjoy free time at our hotel together. (B,D)

DAY 5 – MONDAY, MARCH 29– This morning, after breakfast at our hotel, we will check out and load our luggage onboard our motorcoach. We will enjoy one last treat in Washington before our departure, as we will transfer to the world-famous Smithsonian Institute Museums. Our bus will be happy to drop you off at your choice of Smithsonian – from the African American History, American History and Natural History, or the Smithsonian of American Art, there is something for everyone! You can enjoy lunch, on your own, inside one of the many restaurants, or even enjoy the many food trucks on the National Mall, at your leisure today. We will also have an opportunity to see our Founding Documents at our National Archives if you would like. At 1:45 PM, we will load our motorcoach and transfer to our DC Airport for a late afternoon departure, arriving back in Jackson by 7:45PM. Everyone will arrange to be picked up at the Jackson Evers airport this evening, full of memories from our “Cherry Blossom Time in Washington, D.C.!”
